1 Angus Caravelli

Picturing a quiet enclave for a mother and child, Martha Angus and Paula Caravelli imaginatively tented a sitting room in Robert Allen's Ocean Trail acrylic in White. The room is equipped with a steel daybed from Amy Perlin Antiques and a custom braided rug from A.M. Collections.

2 Scott-Ulmann

The living room was decorated with four seasons in mind, says Priscilla Ulmann, who collaborated with Jennifer Powers on the design. "The colors are summery, but the textures are so warm." Both keys are struck by an Oushak carpet from Doris Leslie Blau, NYC, and sofas by Anthony Lawrence-Belfair upholstered in Manuel Canovas's Obi 4546 through Cowtan & Tout.

3 Amanda Nisbet

The porch features a mix of bold color and pattern with natural textures. The curtains are made of Quadrille's Scirocco II and Wildflowers II. The cushions on the Weatherend Estate Furniture settees are in Phillip Jeffries's Raffia in Key Largo-Blue. Accents include an Apsara Interior chandelier and chunks of coral wall-mounted in shadow boxes.
